

Tickets now on sale for Kent Conservation District's 20th Annual Barn Dance fundraiser on Oct. 11

DOVER – The Kent Conservation District invites everyone to a rompin', stompin' good time at its 20th Annual Barn Dance fundraiser to be held from 6 to 11 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11 at the Harrington Fire Company, 20 Clark Street, Harrington, DE 19952. The event features a down-home meal including beef and dumplings, fried chicken, and all the fixings, plus live and silent benefit auctions, and dancing to DJ music.

Tickets are now on sale for $20 per person or $35 per couple. Tickets for children 12 years and under are $10 each, while children under two are admitted free. Reserved tables seating eight are available for $150, and must be reserved in one name and paid by a single check.

Funds raised through the Barn Dance support the Delaware Envirothon, an annual competitive, problem-solving, natural resource challenge for high school students which is co-sponsored by DNREC. Additionally, DNREC's Division of Watershed Stewardship guides the Conservation Districts staff in providing technical and financial assistance to Delaware's farmers, landowners, and homeowners to protect and enhance the state's soil and water resources.

For tickets or more information, please call the Kent Conservation District at 302-741-2600, ext. 3.
